Petitioners are accused in a case registered for the offences under Sections 307 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code read with Section 27 of the Arms Act.

The specific allegation against the petitioners is of firing from their pistol which hit some of the persons.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the allegations against the petitioners are false.

Learned counsel for the State, opposes the prayer for bail and submits that there is specific allegation of firing which hit someone as per the allegation of the informant.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, prayer for bail on behalf of the petitioner is rejected.
